

THE MODERN PATRIOT

William S. Highfield, 2012 Ridge Road East, Rochester, New York 14622 USA

ISSUE # 0

June 1982

celebrity of the month: Pres. Ronald Reagan enemy of the month: Steve Arnawoodian

FEES:

subscription: $5.00 for 12 issues
game fee : $3.00
standby fee : subscription payment for articles : 1 or 2 free issues

My telephone number is:

(716) 266-7200

I can be reached between 9pm
and 11pm, Mon thru Thur Collect calls will not be accepted.

THE MODERN PATRIOT is dedicated to serving the Postal Diplomacy Hobby. Diplomacy is a registered trademark for a game invented by Allan Calhamer and copyrighted by the Aval n Hill Game Company.

HIGHFIELD'S HIT LIST

It is in this section of TMP that I jump on and rip apart any and ALL of my enemies and/or friends. This is similar to KATHY'S KORNER. As you can see at the top, my enemy for this month is Steve Arnawoodian. It's a bitter story I have to tell so pay attention.

In issue # 10 of COAT OF ARMS, I submitted an advertisement for the Rochester Area Diplomacy Players' Organization of which Porter Wightman and I are Directors. Steve ADDED IN lines which MAY have offended two of my good friends, John Michalski who I'm allied with in 'Ravioli' (one of COA's games) and Donald Sigwalt, fellow Rochestarian and good friend who also publishes two of my games. The lines he put in follow :

and " ... Also, joining this club places you in the ' I like to harass John Michalski club', which is co-chaired by Kathy Byrne, and Steve Arnawoodian, Scott Hanson is the Secretary and Tom Mainardi is the Treasurer. "

" We have allowed Don Sigwalt to become an important member. He is such a poor soul that we took him out of the cold and placed him in our exec committee. Don now gets to clean up after our meetings ! "

This is an outrage ! How dare he make it look like I'm mocking out fellow friends and radicals. Sure, it's no secret that I'm a Republican and openly back John's policies concerning nuclear weapons in Europe, Europeans in general, the Falklands' Crisis (it should be known as the Malvinas Crisis). I, too, admire a country with guts. England may be a good ally but that doesn't stop them from being spineless jellyfish who believe either someone else will do the dirty work or that ' the Royal Navy will save the day '. If they win this one (which they will) at least they got hurt. Loosing that Frigate and the destroyer should take the word 'invincible' out of the list of adjectives describing the Royal Navy.

Where was I ? Oh yeah, Steve is really a pompous idiot for using MY advertisement to attack people. He's just afraid to do it in person. I warn anyone placing articles in COA not to be surprised if he does this to you.

If you have any suggestions on who should be next, write. NOTE: No good Republican will be attacked without provocation.

People wishing to be included in Dick Martin's census of the Postal Diplomacy hobby should write him at 7400 Columbia Ave., #4, College Pk., MD 20740

Listen people, I NEED PLAYERS ! Sign up now and send in articles, letters, pictures, or anything else you want. I want to start one Abstraction game and a couple of Regular Diplomacy games. If any of you want to play a different game it's OK by me. If you want the rules and/or map for Abstraction, just send $.50.

I would like to thank the following people for helping me get started as a zine of the future: Porter Wightman, Don Sigwalt, Kathy Byrne, Mark Berch, Gary Coughlan, and Jack Fleming. Special thanks goes to John Daly for being behind me 100% and NEVER hesitating to helping me out in any way he could. He knows that ANYTIME I can help him I will. His zine, the Dogs of War, was my first zine and the best one I subscribe to. Thanks John.

For the information of subbers, I receive the following zines:

Dogs of War, Hoof and Mouth, Paranoiacs' Monthly, Europa Express, St George and the Dragon, Diplomacy Digest, Diplomacy World, The Pink Dragon, Bushwacker, Coat of Arms, Down n Dirty, Cheesecake, Xenogotic, the American Wargamer, Envoy, and The General . I will trade zines with anyone once I get started. Sorry this ish is so short but this is only issue # 0 and I haven't any games,yet. Please join up !!

Celebrity of the Month is ... Ronald Reagan, President of the United States of America, Republican, wonderful, spectacular, hard-working, omniscient, and a GREAT human being. I like Reagonomics and Sec. of State Haig. They're all trying hard to make this country better than best. Anyone who is an enemy of Reagan is an enemy of mine. However, I do make a few exceptions so don't fret, Steve. For those interested, and especially for those who aren't, I dislike communists, socialists, welfare cheats, and corrupt politicians.

I'm a senior in High School (Bishop Kearney). I major in American History, Mathematics and Economics. I'm one of the Directors and founders of the Rochester Area Dip Players' Organization, I play in 7 Dip games and 2 pbm Afrika Korps games by mail plus I play in 1 phone game and GM another of Diplomacy in Rochester. I plan on attending St John Fisher College in the fall and I'm an alternate for a scholarship from the US Navy ROTC.

'Till next time. Please subscribe now,

Your friend,

Bill 'the Reaganite' Highfield